

We are seeking passionate and dedicated Volunteer Directors to join our newly established Community Interest Corporation (CIC) in London. As Volunteer Directors, you will play a crucial role in guiding and overseeing the strategic direction and operations of our organization, which is committed to serving the needs of the local community and promoting social impact.

Responsibilities:

1. Governance Leadership: Provide strategic leadership and governance oversight to ensure the organization operates in alignment with its mission, values, and legal obligations.
2. Strategic Planning: Participate in the development and implementation of the organization's strategic plan, setting goals and objectives to drive social impact and community engagement.
3. Financial Oversight: Monitor the organization's financial performance, budgets, and financial sustainability, ensuring effective financial management and accountability.
4. Stakeholder Engagement: Build and maintain relationships with stakeholders, including community members, partners, funders, and regulatory bodies, to advance the organization's mission and objectives.
5. Program Oversight: Review and evaluate programs and initiatives to ensure they meet the needs of the community, achieve desired outcomes, and adhere to quality standards.
6. Risk Management: Identify and mitigate risks to the organization's reputation, operations, and finances, implementing policies and procedures to promote transparency and integrity.
7. Legal and Regulatory Compliance: Ensure compliance with all relevant laws, regulations, and reporting requirements governing CICs, maintaining accurate records and documentation.
8. Team Support: Provide support and guidance to staff and volunteers, fostering a positive and inclusive organizational culture that values teamwork, diversity, and collaboration.

Qualifications:

- Demonstrated commitment to social impact and community development.
- Previous experience serving on boards or in leadership roles, preferably in the non-profit or social enterprise sector.
- Strong strategic thinking and decision-making skills, with the ability to analyse complex issues and make sound recommendations.
- Excellent communication, interpersonal, and relationship-building skills, with the ability to engage effectively with diverse stakeholders.
- Knowledge of governance principles, financial management, and legal requirements for CICs or similar organizations.
- Ability to commit to regular meetings and fulfil responsibilities as a Volunteer Director, including attendance at board meetings and committee meetings.

Location: London, United Kingdom

Type: Volunteer Position (Non-Remunerated)

Time Commitment: Flexible, with an estimated commitment of 5-10 hours per month

If you are passionate about making a difference in your community and have the skills and experience to contribute as a Volunteer Director, we invite you to join us in our mission to create positive social change.
